

Welcome to your May newsletter

In this month's issue you can find out you can get involved in user research for CCS, did you know our Management Consultancy framework can help you with public health policy, hospital management and much more

You can also read our latest GDPR update and how it affects those using our contracts.

Find out more on how the NHS has recently signed a national agreement with Microsoft.

Find out more

Have your say on our new health sector resourcing agreement

Find out more

Find out how we're improving our customer service for you

Find out more

Help us evaluate our Legal Services supplier bids

Find out more

Unlock savings on your Utilities and Fuels with our new demand management framework

Find out more

Watch our video which tells you how to run a further competition

Find out more

Upcoming events and webinars

1. Digitech 2018 - 18 May
2. How to run a further competition webinar - 23 May
3. Technology webinars - various dates
4. Construction Works Agreement – Customer Engagement Webinar - 4 June
5. Public Sector Show - 26 June

Find out more

Aggregation opportunities

By joining up your requirements with others and letting us do the hard work, we can help you save both time and money. We currently have opportunities in mobile voice and data services and fleet services.

Find out more

Framework news

We have lots of updates on our frameworks this month. Our Utilities Management Software, Metering and Ancillary Services is now live and the Allied Health Professionals Health Science and Emergency Services Temporary Staff framework has now expired.

Find out more

